Heritage

Trying to pinpoint what lies in store?
Hoping to answer —
what can we do?
Seeking the reasons for —
why must it be?
Shouting the plea—
O God, who are we?
Youth.

Nuts to the squirrels roaming the halls.

Education can be beneficial only if one is able to weed out that which is worthless.

If you turn the other cheek, expect to take it on the chin!

Leaving school behind is like saying good-bye to an old friend.

Decent!

In order to be a realist, you must believe in miracles.

A person who talks about his inferiors, hasn't any.

Hot pants are breeches of promise.

It will be Sunny today, and Cher tomorrow.

Love that is hoarded molds at last — until we know someday. The only things we ever have are what we give away.

Beat!

Growing up used to mean the first pair of long pants. Now it's the first X-rated movie.

A building of learning, constructed of bricks and glass; monitored by teachers and enhanced by we students.

The most important things in life aren't things.

Confucious say: There are more wise crackers than there are smart cookies.

Status symbols are medals you buy yourself.

Each youth is like a child born in the night who sees the sun rise and thinks that yesterday never existed.

Nuts and bolts, nuts and bolts, we got screwed.

You must change with the times unless you are big enough to change the times.

Average is the best of the bad and the worst of the good.

Shot!

The ocean of learning is so swift and deep that many drown.

Nothing like BATMAN comic books and squirt guns — filled with water.

What a rip off!

Nothing like gum on your chair and a hair in your soup.

The oldest words of pen or tongue: we didn't do that when I was young.

Life is like a dirty needle and a teaspoon full — SHOT!

His idea of soul searching is looking through his record collection.

Need a fountain of youth — try being an underclassman.

If it takes a lot of words to say what you have in mind, give it more thought.

It has been said that the school years are the best years of one's life — nice try Seniors!

Remember those wide pupils and little puffs of smoke.

We can destroy ourselves by cynicism and disillusion, just as effectively as by bombs.

As I see it, if you get a 50% on a test, you've learned 50% of everything a teacher has taught. That's not too bad, really. (Why don't report cards agree?)

Squiggles of laughter skipping around the cafeteria.

Maybe there is a generation gap, but many parents shared the same feelings as Seniors!

This is '72!

'72 Our Year

There is a special feeling deep inside the soul of every senior.
The idea of a task nearly completed and a final time left to mature.
A great year is the last,
filled with laughter, deep emotions, joy,
large decisions, and most of all,
a step toward the future.

We, The Seniors, Dedicate Heritage '72 To Mr. Michael Mausner

Always to be remembered--never to be relived. Undoubtedly, this applies to the Class of '72's years at Red Land.

Playing a major role in our memorable high school experiences was Mr. Michael Mausner. Serving as Senior Class Dean, his contributions to the Senior Class were imimmeasurable. However, Mr. Mausner's unswerving dedication manifested itself in many other capacities.

As our advisor, Mr. Mausner led but did not control; as a coach, he disciplined but did not dominate; and as an instructor, he directed but did not dictate.

For his service, leadership, and devotion to us, we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1972 Heritage to Mr. Michael Mausner advisor, coach, instructor, and friend.

Homecoming Weekend

Charm and beauty reigned over the 1971 Homecoming Weekend this year along with our beautiful queen, Marianne Hall, and her escort, Dan Acri.

The half-time entertainment got under way as the band lined up on the field and the cars rounded the stadium, presenting the court to the audience. Marianne, our radiant queen, was proudly crowned by our principal, Mr. Knisley, and the attractive 1970 Homecoming Queen, Melinda Davis.

Night activities, sponsored by the Student Council, enchanted students, faculty and the alumni. Music was presented by the Polygons, an exciting group from Harrisburg.

Altogether, the Homecoming events were successfully unforgetable.

Miss Red Land for the 1971 Youth Festival was Lynn Schofield. Lynn, along with 21 other girls from surrounding schools, were honored at the 1971 Youth Festival. The Festival was held November 26 at the Zembo Mosque and all area schools were invited. There were 3 groups playing, the main group being the "New York Ensemble." Two other local groups were "Saturday" and "Rich Clare Polygon", who played at RL's homecoming.

The profits made on the dance were donated to two local organizations, the Tri-County Society for Crippled Children and the Girls Club of Harrisburg.

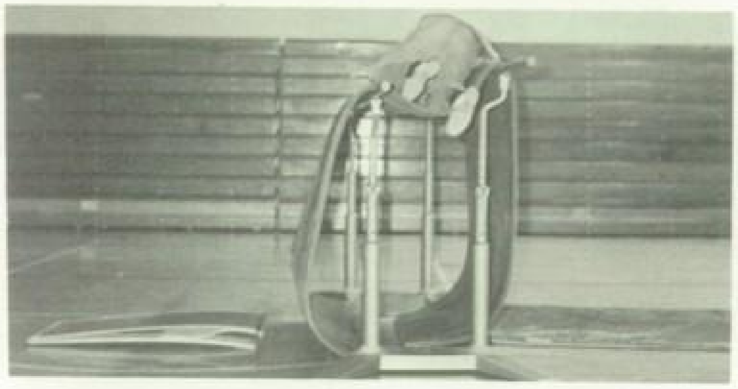
YOUTH FESTIVAL
1971

With Reverend Biller presiding over the hillbilly hitching, and chicks asking the guys, this year's Sadie was successful.

Most girls, donning jeans and pigtails, escorted their catches to the annual knee-slapping event. It was sponsored by the enthusiastic Junior Class.

"Time" provided the background rhythm, with straw and pumpkins scattered everywhere to round it out.

"Time" passed the test.



If at first you don't succeed, give it up!

Bonfire

Burn, Burn.

Almighty Cheerleaders

The Senior Class of 1972, presented Red Land's first and only Bonfire on October 29. Throughout the night's activities the student body participated with great enthusiasm. Led by the cheerleaders, encouraged by the football players and band, we completely cremated the Trojan mannequin.

About midway through the ceremony, Mr. George R. Law Sr., presented a speech pertaining mainly to sports at Red Land. Although the activities only lasted less than one hour, the bonfire was a flaming success.

Although the Pates were defeated by the Palmyra Cougars; proud parents stood by to cheer on their discouraged sons in high hopes of a victory.

Individually, before the start of the game, parents were presented to the spectators of both teams. Escorted by their sons, the proud and happy parents paraded down a pathway of cheerleaders and bandfront members.

An old Victorian house in Brooklyn is the home of the elderly Brewster sisters, Abby and Martha, and their not so-stable nephew, Teddy. Trouble begins when Mortimer, another nephew and the only sane one in the group, finds out that his dear sweet aunts have been poisoning old men to give them "peace of mind" and burying them in the cellar. Further complications arise in the form of a third homicidal nephew, Jonathan, who arrives with another victim of his own.

Fiddler on the Roof

"A milk cow. . . I won't be so lonesome."

You don't have to be Jewish to enjoy "Fiddler on the Roof." The story is set in the Russian Village of Anatevka, but it could by anywhere--anywhere that people are faced with hard times and meet them with humor and humanity.

This is the warm and wonderful story of Tevye, the eternal milkman, and his five exasperating daughters. Although Tevye's precariously balanced world often threatens to come down around his ears, he manages to keep his wry sense of humor about himself, his family, and his god.

"This is mine, this mine, this is mine, etc."

R.L.'s Visitor From Abroad

Alex Jung, who is Red Land's exchange student for 1972, comes from Fischen, Germany. He is staying at the Atland's residence, who sent their daughter, Laura, to Alex's home in September. For Alex, this year has been a very eventful one. He took part in the Junior and Senior Class play, "Arsenic and Old Lace" and also, in our musical, "Fiddler On the Roof." Another accomplishment made by Alex was his acquisition of an American Driver's License. Upon returning to Germany, Alex will have to complete two more years at the Gymnasium Oberstdorf (high school). After which he plans to continue his education at one of the universities in hopes of someday becoming a doctor.

Alex lists horseback riding, skiing, sailing, and photography as his favorite activities. His favorite foods is rice and his favorite drink is beer, which was one thing he missed most about his home. Out of all the subjects he took at Red Land, Study Hall was his favorite.

Alex feels his stay has been a very beneficial one and also, very enjoyable.

Shouting the plea—
O God, who are we?
Youth.

Nuts to the squirrels roaming the halls.

Education can be beneficial only if one is able to weed out that which is worthless.

If you turn the other cheek, expect to take it on the chin!

Leaving school behind is like saying good-bye to an old friend.

Decent!

In order to be a realist, you must believe in miracles.

A person who talks about his inferiors, hasn't any.

Hot pants are breeches of promise.

It will be Sunny today, and Cher tomorrow.

Love that is hoarded molds at last — until we know someday. The only things we ever have are what we give away.

Beat!

Growing up used to mean the first pair of long pants. Now it's the first X-rated movie.

A building of learning, constructed of bricks and glass; monitored by teachers and enhanced by we students.

The most important things in life aren't things.

Confucious say: There are more wise crackers than there are smart cookies.

Status symbols are medals you buy yourself.

Each youth is like a child born in the night who sees the sun rise and thinks that yesterday never existed.

its and bolts, nuts and bolts, we got rewed.

u must change with the times unless you e big enough to change the times.

verage is the best of the bad and the orst of the good.

ot!

e ocean of learning is so swift and deep at many drown.

othing like BATMAN comic books and uirt guns — filled with water.

othing like gum on your chair and a hair your soup.

e oldest words of pen or tongue: we dn't do that when I was young.

fe is like a dirty needle and a teaspoon ll — SHOT!

is idea of soul searching is looking rough his record collection.

Need a fountain of youth — try being an underclassman.

If it takes a lot of words to say what you have in mind, give it more thought.

It has been said that the school years are the best years of one's life — nice try Seniors!

Remember those wide pupils and little puffs of smoke.

We can destroy ourselves by cynicism and disillusion, just as effectively as by bombs.

As I see it, if you get a 50% on a test, you've learned 50% of everything a teacher has taught. That's not too bad, really. (Why don't report cards agree?)

Squiggles of laughter skipping around the cafeteria.

Maybe there is a generation gap, but many parents shared the same feelings as Seniors!
